Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Hand Book of Social Laws of Pennsylvania The idea out of which this book grew was conceived by the workers of The Associated Charities of Pittsburgh, who have long felt that more accurate, comprehensive information regarding the laws of our Commonwealth would strengthen their service to their clients. To determine those statutes which have application to the social relationships and conditions of families and persons which social workers are called upon to serve, and to present, as briefly and untechnically as possible, the provisions of these acts and the process of enforcement are the tasks which have been undertaken by the author. Manifestly a complete compendium of such legislation could not be attempted within the limits prescribed by the object of providing a legal guide for the use of the lay field worker. It is believed, however, that all the laws which are commonly used by social workers, as well as many acts which probably never have been used, but which could be used to advantage, have been covered in this compilation. It is scarcely...
