V., Boynton s Letters to the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette, August, 1888 Comrades of the Society of the Army of the Cumberland: When General H. V. Boynton s letters recently appeared in the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette, so vividly portraying the achievements and heroism of the Army of the Cumberland in its campaign for the possession of Chattanooga, including the inevitable incident thereto, the battle of Chickamauga, I thought how agreeable it would be for each member of the society to have a copy for perusal at our approaching reunion on the twenty-fifth anniversary of Chickamauga. Accordingly I asked General Boynton s permission to print these letters in pamphlet form, as advance sheets of any volume in which he may determine to put them with other matter. My Dear General: You are welcome to the Chickamauga letters for any use you choose to make of them. While the salient features of both days battle are easily understood, the details of movements by brigades are in many cases intricate. For this...
