Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Parlement of Foules (also known as the Parliament of Foules, Parlement of Briddes, Assembly of Fowls, Assemble of Foules, or The Parliament of Birds) is a poem by Geoffrey Chaucer (1343-1400) made up of approximately 700 lines. The poem is in the form of a dream vision in rhyme royal stanza and is the first reference to the idea that St. Valentine s Day is a special day for lovers. The poem begins with the narrator reading Cicero s Somnium Scipionis in the hope of learning some certeyn thing. When he falls asleep Scipio Africanus the Elder appears and guides him up through the celestial spheres to a gate promising both a welle of grace and a stream that ledeth to the sorweful were/ Ther as a fissh in prison is al drye (reminiscent of the famous grimly inscribed gates in Dante s Inferno). After some deliberation at the gate, the narrator enters and passes through Venus s dark temple with its friezes of doomed lovers and out into the bright sunlight. Here Nature is convening...
