Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Legion of Honor Teacher-Training Lessons, Vol. 1 Under the agreement entered into in 1908 between the Committee on Education of the International Sunday School Association and the Teacher-Training officers and leaders of the various Sunday-school Associations and the Denominations of the International field, all teacher-training courses were to be revised to meet the standards as fixed by this conference of leaders. To this end the Legion of Honor course has been made to conform to the International requirements as a First Standard Course, and is herewith submitted to its host of students in many States and Provinces and as an official text in some of the denominations. In the revision of the Course it has been deemed best for the convenience of students to place all lessons in one book; the twenty-five Bible studies constituting Part One, and the twenty-five Sunday-school studies Part Two. The Bible Lessons have needed slight revision, though they have stood the severe test of more than fifteen years use by many thousands of students. While in all mooted Biblical matters...
