Veritas Publications, 2008. Paperback. Book Condition: BRAND NEW. When a Child Dies is an experiential book in which the reader is invited into the minds and hearts of a family devastated by the death of their youngest member. Through the voices of the child's parents and siblings, this book explores the many feelings and thoughts experienced following this tragedy. The feelings of shock, anger, rage, sadness, fear, terror, denial, yearning, guilt and loneliness are palpable throughout, showing how the family coped, and what helped them to come to terms with their loss. When a Child Dies ultimately uncovers a family slowly emerging from darkness and chaos to reach some kind of acceptance, and to make the decision to live rather than to merely exist. From the Author: This book will be of great help to siblings as well as to parents of bereaved children. by children I include adult children of any age, as well as children who die in the womb, infants, preteens and teenagers. This is one of the few books that gives a voice to siblings. all my surviving children wrote for this book, and contemporary diaries are used. Generally the focus is on the bereaved parents, and the pain and suffering of siblings often goes unnoticed. this book shows how deep and longlasting this suffering is. Nevertheless, it is also a book of hope and it shows how a family can eventually integrate such an awful loss and be happy. But there is always sadness. That is part of loving and losing a child. this book was written to help bereaved people, and the royalties will always go to the Children's Hospital, Crumlin, Dublin. this is one of the few books, if not the only one that looks at the long term impact of grief. It...
